

Hey, I've just been shopping
(He's just been shopping)

Relax and think for a while
Slow right down and feel control
Remove the specs from yards of black
Scratching back you made me shiver
Scratch my back I'll make you quiver
Reality hasn't struck you yet, oh no

It's late by my eyes
By my hand I know I'm late
I must be late by years

If I should show one tear in my eye
I could never blame the wind right now
I could never blame the wind right now
I could never blame the wind right now
No no no

Flying the sky's just fallen
My eyes are drowning
My eyes in the shower
My sights are clouded
My sights...

This dream, dream my life revolves in
Comes so close to breaking free
And I need someone to shout out
And my loved one cried out
"What you say?"

She said, save me
Won't you save me
Save me, come on
Save me, won't you

Save me from this coma, coma called life
Save me from this coma, coma called life
"What you say?"

Come on, save me, won't you
Save me, come on
Save me, what from?
Save me, won't you
