

Probably Nothing

Blancmange

It isn't every day
Things come along this way
In between it broke, you can probably fix it

Every once in a while
Something strange will happen
It wouldn't be stretching the point
To say that you notice

You probably know this
You most likely notice
You probably know this

All time [?]
What can I do?
Probably... nothing

If you have ever wandered
Lonely in the crowd
You will know every detail
When the sound of nothing gets loud

Every once in a while
Something strange will happen
And it wouldn't be stretching the point
To say that you notice

All time [?]
What can I do?
Probably... nothing
Probably nothing
Probably nothing
Nothing

You probably know this
You most likely notice
You probably know this
