

One Day Less

Blanco Brown

I don't care if the sun rise, don't give off no light
Cruising down 285 with the top down, wind blowing
Heaven knows it ain't fair, I swear
My little slice of paradise, it'd be hell without your glowing

Smile, lookin' over at me
That's the day I never wanna see

I hope live one day less (One day)
Yeah, one day less (One day)
Baby, only Heaven knows when we gotta go
But, baby, when you go
I hope I live one day less (One day)
Yeah, one day less
So I don't live a day without you

Don't wanna wake up in the morning without your kisses
Sit out in that porch swing without you in it
Ain't tryna be reminded of the life I lived before your love
But if you live to see 101

I hope I live one day less (One day)
Yeah, one day less (One day)
Baby, only Heaven knows when we gotta go
But, baby, when you go
I hope I live one day less (One day)
Yeah, one day less
So I don't live a day without you, yeah

I hope I'll never see one sunrise, one midnight
No, I don't wanna know what life's like without you

I hope I live one day less
Yeah, one day less
I hope I'll live one day less (One day)
Yeah, one day less (One day)
Baby, only Heaven knows when we gotta go
But, baby, when you go
I hope I live one day less (One day)
Yeah, one day less
I hope I'll live one day less
Yeah, one day less

Cruising down 285 with the top down, wind blowing
My little slice of paradise, it'd be hell without your glowing
