

Sooner Or Later

Blanco Brown

Standing on broken promises
Betting on yourself when you have nothing to win
Looking forward to those rainy days
Remember jumping in grandpas 4 x 4
Mudding with friends

Those old days you'll never forget
Time was never spent wasting it
But those moments we were so innocent
When we were kids
Time just seemed like it would wait on us

Sooner or later
You'll have to ride alone
Sooner or later
You'll have to learn to grow
So take those childhood memories and turn them into your dreams
And know that it's never ever too late
Sooner or later
You'll learn to love yourself
That's how we grow
That's how we grow
That's how we show up

Sitting on the tailgate waiting for the sun to set
Reminiscing on the the firepits burning slow
Kept the night lit
Summertime was the coldest
Those old cassette tapes with your favorite songs
They got you through the day til you made it home
We were so innocent when we were kids
Time seemed like it would just wait on us

Sooner or later
You'll have to ride alone
Sooner or later
You'll have to learn to grow
So take those childhood memories and turn them into your dreams
And know that it's never ever too late
Sooner or later
You'll learn to love yourself
That's how we love
That's how we love
That's how we grow
That's how we grow
That's how we show up
