

I Belong to You

Blanco White

The light is gone for now
Inside we write alone
Could we craft a sundance through the night
Coals aglow
In our eyes, free of souls
In our hearts?
Red blood beat forever
Tired as we are
When I wake, steal the dawn
Lead my mind, hear me call
I see no other, said I belong to you

Divided coast surrounds me now
In lines below
And my thoughts are hijacked out of sight
Left to roam
In a sky full of stars
Let alone, could they shine forever?
Tired as they are
When I wake, steal the dawn
Lead my mind, hear me call
I see no other, said I belong to you
