

Outsider

Blanco White

It don't matter where you go, Or who's right on a sinking ship.
We'll still shatter in the cold, It came alive, how it drew us in

I'm found out if all I do is hide between the lines, An outside r at the door. I'm unbound, foreign on a path forever mine, Thi s outsider at the door

We're confined to be apart, To take sides in divided cells. We collide when we depart, Don't ask me what's the cost, I don't k now myself

I'm found out if all I do is hide between the lines, An outside r at the door. I'm unbound, foreign on a path forever mine, Thi s outsider at the door

There's no secret safe, that I keep from you, They'll outlast y ou all. I'm a coward Not a slave to you, how can I, Be the sile nt one?

I'm found out if all I do is hide between the lines, An outside r at the door. I'm unbound, foreign on a path forever mine, Thi s outsider at the door
