

Samara

Blanco White

Samara I won't forget your face
Reminders don't ever feel the same
Samara, could you ever change
Tonight now if only for a day?

I need no rest
In my mind we're alone
You said life is a long road
Was I just waiting to arrive
For one day by your side?

Samara you're leading me astray
Horizons won't keep you here contained

I see no rest
And this time we're alone
You said life is a long road
Could I feel more alive
Than right here by your side?

Has my time ended
To say so?
Has my time ended
Would I know?
Has my time ended
To say so?
Has my time ended
Time to let you know?
