

Brilliant Mind II

Blanco

(Ayy, B)

Ayyy'

DND, uptown with the mandem

Bro hopped out, leng one just grabbed him

She got a man, but said I'm attractive

All this income, bro and it's passive

Trust me I've been outside, I'm active

Real life, this ain't no acting

Sexy Fish just opened up

Reservation booked already

Playing the get back game, she petty

Bro got white like Keisha and Becky

So many L's but wins took plenty

B-but wins took plenty

Bro got teeth for the Earth no cavity

Paranoid one, she needs some clarity

Me and her man no similarity

Hold that L if you hit that after me

A-a-ain't got a question bro

If I tell him slide, he's eager to roll

I weren't always getting it in, I will take mans shit and then I'll send man home

Be careful how you be talking, my young g wanna make some dough

So you know what that means, if I throw him a bag he'll make his own way home

DDT I got head like litre

Rice on the landing, should've had quinoa

Hop with a heater, cover that fever

War, no, no, not Geneva, drain that blunder we ain't got a litre

Spin that, we ain't got a metre

Mash on my right hands, houses mad when he lost that 9 millimetre

Brilliant mind, I'm brilliant baby

Mash for the P's and covered in gravy

Some of this house is more than dangerous

H-h-headshot, do it like Jamie

German car, got yellowish inside, outside black like Thomas Delaney

C-come to the bit then I'm sending them L way

Manny, feeling like Foden baby

Fuck this 10 like Sancho's enemy, wanna go Hakkasan too not Tennessee

 was belling me, Bells was telling me

"Maj, just pour that Coke and Hennessy"

Chocolate darling, started that legacy, coldest

DDT, that's don't do ticks

I was young, now I'm like Hulk Hogan

Smile, don't cry, I pour Henny inside

It's snakes in the grass, reptilian lies

Fake friends weren't there, this really implies

I lost it, gained the Brazilian vibes

This quirky jawn le million slide

Take civilian lives

She gave me the Isaac Newton Law

That brain, you know you got a brilliant mind

So many man incarcerated, that's all your dreams deflated

They'll forget about you, no debating
That girl you love, ain't waiting
That's the reality still, for the man that are pocket watching
Yes been offered a mill', and I almost made me a mill'
I treat the block like Beverly Hills
I guess I love how the trenches feel

F-f-fresh as scale, now his covered in grills
Broski's gone, so I'm covered in chills
Spin so much, she's covered in wheels
Stars and fields, Cruella DeVille
Guys still hungry, watch it get eaten
Wrists, let's cover that smoke

Smile, don't cry, I pour Henny inside
It's snakes in the grass, reptilian lies
Fake friends weren't there, this really implies
I lost it, gained the Brazilian vibes
This quirky jawn le million slide
Take civilian lives
She gave me the Isaac Newton Law
That brain, you know you got a brilliant mind
