

Cost

Blanco

How much does love really cost
Do I take you fancy dates til I'm posh
I do take you away to an island buy diamonds
All the things that floss
Is it cars or the clothes and watch
Is it looks or the way that I hit that spot
Is it nice when I hid from cops
Trills for the cheap when it hits that clock
Uh

Gimme
This time is with me
Puff my eyes are diddy
All my lies are biggie
Truth won't set me free
But lying too might send silly
Think I'm Hercules I'm fragile too insert Achilles

Chasing a dream did you make it
Healed but I'm asking me did you break it
Insane what the mental state is hurt but I hurt what mental trait is
Out with the cones like training ghost then I ghost now I'm new like kanan
Changing my ways and madan mystic force so I'm back power rangers

Name hate spelling it flying them thoughts I'm soon propelling them
Pass you around like bellingham closet full of demons and skeletons
Your past but I'm passed that now be clouded Arkham elements
Dark but I'm dark and delicate
Giving out things that you like degenerous

IG but your better in person full back times reminisce like Irwin
Holding your hair when your hurling
Soul patch but it just might worsen
Bitter maybe scarred and hurting
Realer maybe I'm guarding verses
Taken away I'm rehearsing
Grass is greener again like Burgess

Park this is car lets converse

Bet on who might come first
Talk and I just might convert
War let start like Dunkirk
Bearer of all bad news
Olivia pope this scandal
7 times that you done my wrong
My term I'm Jackson Andrew
