

best day ever

Blanks

Dreams are getting bigger, but the house feels small
You're in every picture hanging on my wall
Season's over
I got older

I keep going and I don't look back
Sun-kissed skin, never felt better
Ride my bicycle in fancy pants
This is the best day ever

Last night, I cried till my tears ran out
Right now, I just wanna be happy
I'm scared I lost what it's all about
When did my heart get so heavy?

But I keep going and I don't look back
Sun-kissed skin, never felt better
Ride my bicycle in fancy pants
This is the best day ever

Only smiling like a child
This is the best day ever
Lose your worries for a while
This is the best day ever

But I keep going and I don't look back
Sun-kissed skin, never felt better
Ride my bicycle in fancy pants
This is the best day ever

Only smiling like a child
This is the best day ever
Lose your worries for a while
This is the best day ever

This is the best day ever
