

Everything's Changing

Blanks

Have you heard of the corner
On the busiest street
Where the girl is been standing
Around for a week, yeah
The people who walk by
They try not to see her
As if they're embarrassed
Embarrassed to be there

And oh-oh
She's holding up a bigger sign
No-oh, she's dreaming of a better time

'Cause everything's changing
Just like that Bob Dylan song
The times they are changing
She's been singing all along

Have you heard of the corner
On the busiest street
Where the people are singing
Singing together
Because of a girl
Who started to gather
All of her friends
And the friends of her friends

And oh-oh
She's holding up a bigger sign
No-oh, she's dreaming of a better time

'Cause everything's changing
Just like that Bob Dylan song
The times they are changing
She's been singing all along
'Cause everything's changing
Just like that Bob Dylan song
The times they are changing
She's been singing all along

No-oh, She's holding up a bigger sign
No-oh, she's dreaming of a better time

'Cause everything's changing
Just like that Bob Dylan song
The times they are changing
She's been singing all along
