

Honest

Blanks

I'm getting lost in all my thought, I need some help to walk through rough

All the mazes in my mind, I'm getting lost without you

Can you make a promise?

I need you to be honest

Now the days are getting cold, I need someone to hold me

Oh I wish that I would have told, what you really meant to me

I need you to be honest

So I'm gonna make you promise

Can you be honest with me? Can you be honest?

Can you be honest with me? Can you be honest?

Can you be honest with me? Can you be honest?

Can you be honest with me? Can you be honest?
