I'm Sorry

Blanks

I'm sorry that I made you wait an hour at the station
I promised I wouldn't be late
I'm sorry that I lied about why I couldn't make it
That was a mistake

I'm running out of ways to tell you

That I adore you
I need to be honest with myself
Oh, I can't afford to
Spend my life with anybody else

I'm sorry that I left when you pretended to be okay
That wasn't the case
Secretly, I knew that I had to stay with you that night
Another mistake

I'm running out of ways to tell you
I'm struggling to find the words
Running out of ways to tell you

That I love you
I need to be honest with myself
And I can't afford to
Spend my life with anybody else
Spend my life with anybody else
