I'm so ahead of my time
2018 held me back
Carry the cross, I'm like Christ
Pray to God to saved my life
'Cause I'm really going and killing these people like flies
Well on my way to the ice
Never been lucky
My life ain't a roll of the dice
I just cannot be denied

This ain't no war
I be like Thanos the second I murder like half of your guys
Rest being stretched its telepathic
Methods
Homie, don't even imagine that I am nice
I've been a menace
Conduct the meaning I'm deeper than reason My competition only show up in se ason
I do this everyday like fuck what you thinking
I'm top tier
Lil homie, you rich and it's black
I've been a king and it's fact
You've been a kid and a flash
I mean a flash in a pan
Don't even talk to me I can barely
Hear you over the sound of my greatness
They told me drop a classic and I did it with
No hesitation
Like, thanks for the patience
'Cause

I'm so ahead of my time
2018 held me back
Carry the cross, I'm like Christ
Pray to God to saved my life
'Cause I'm really going and killing these people like flies
Well on my way to the ice
Never been lucky
My life ain't a roll of the dice
I just cannot be denied

M.I Abaga told me I'm the one
Everybody be like shit I'm the one
Even Q really said I'm the dopest
To disrespect me must really be stupid
If you pretending then you really pussy
Turning your bitch to lesbian then turn her back to a groupie
How many times I'ma show you the evidence
This shit is more than this music, I'm gold
Coldest with it
Boy, no, I never froze
Kamasutra, fuck the game like my hoes
I innovated and y'all niggas copied that Don't get no credit on top of that
Y'all still come to me for features
Angry as fuck
But somehow I hold it back

Don't know my zodiac
I'm just a radic like Trump
But only do ebony porn, plus

I'm so ahead of my time
