

Faith Healer

Blak Audio

You're stumbling like the Nazarene
You've cast your gaze to high
The rapture you seek is found below and it's been denied.

You're stunning, just like a Philistine
You're wasting precious time
Shake off that chill of Heaven and come rest your weary eyes
You've been wandering, searching for Him forever
Just take some respite here, and if He shows,
We'll talk to Him together

Oh-oh-oh, don't you know oh oh?
If you come down, down, down
I know a little sin to which we can aspire
Oh-oh-oh, don't you know oh oh?
When you come down, down, down
Just crawl back in your skin and it will take you higher, higher, higher

You're a vision, if you could see yourself through my enlightened eyes
You'd pull yourself from fantasy and wrap yourself in life
You've been suffering, bound to Him forever
We'll have your release here, and when we go, we'll take His name

Oh-oh-oh, don't you know oh oh?
If you come down, down, down
I know a little sin to which we can aspire
Oh-oh-oh, don't you know oh oh?
When you come down, down, down
Just crawl back in your skin and it will take you higher,

Does he ever speak to you like I do?
Does he ever speak to you?
Does he ever speak to you like I do?
Does he ever speak to you?
Does he ever feel the way that I feel?
How does he feel?

Oh-oh-oh, don't you know oh oh?
If you come down, down, down
I know a little sin to which we can aspire
Oh-oh-oh, don't you know oh oh?
When you come down, down, down
Just crawl back in your skin and it will take you higher

Oh-oh-oh, don't you know oh oh?
If you come down, down, down
I know a little secret which we can aspire
Oh-oh-oh, don't you know oh oh?
When you come down, down, down
Just crawl back in your skin and it will take you!
