

I'm a Mess

Blak Audio

Where are lies when no words are spoken?
Don't say, "Hello," it just leads to goodbyes.

When there is no time for words I'm loving you loving you.
When your back has fully turned I'm loving you loving you.

You won't care that I can't live without you.
Leave me here and you'll always remain with me.

When there is no time for words I'm loving you loving you.
When your back has fully turn your back on me.

When there is no time for words I'm loving you loving you.
When your back has fully turned I'm loving you.

So turn away...
Please turn away...
Turn your back on me...

When there is no time for words I'm loving you loving you.
When your back has fully turn your back on me.

When there is no time for words I'm loving you loving you.
When your back has fully turned I'm loving you.
