We are all still the same dear. I have owned this life forever,
I'll always remain.
If it's just the same dear, why have you left before "forever"
yet returned again?

If you show me heaven I will meet you there.
How it breaks their hearts
That we've made an art
Of desecrating our sanctuaries.

We're one and the same dear, you were born for this.
Forever forget your restraint.
Remnants of a past here
Pass like light through dust as memories
Fall fleeting like pain.

If you show me heaven I will meet you there.
How it breaks their hearts
That we've made an art
Of desecrating our sanctuaries.

Sanctuaries...
[x2]
How it breaks their hearts...

Desecrate our... (sanctuaries)
[x3]
Descecrate...
Our sanctuaries

If you show me heaven I will meet you there.
How it breaks their hearts
That we've made an art
Of desecrating our sanctuaries.
