

Stormbringer

Blaqk Audio

(I call the storm [?]
Whenever the skies are clear)

Screaming just to be
Heard above the storm as it falls over me
You washed over me

Screaming silently
As all your words come crashing over me
Crashing over me

Screaming just to be
Heard over storms that I follow
And ever follow me

(Call the storm [?]
Whenever the skies are clear)

Lie down and listen
To a storm I hid in your bed that night
Lie down and listen
As rain speaks for me when I'm gone

Waiting patiently
Changing form as the storm returns more violently
You're transforming me

Ever distantly
With your name in the rain as it falls
Like you crashed over me

Lie down and listen
To a storm I hid in your bed that night
Lie down and listen
As rain speaks for me when I'm gone
Lie down and listen
To the notes I hid in your bed that night
Lie down and listen
As my verse speaks for me when I'm gone

You're gone
You're gone
