Open the door and let me in
Breathe deeply now
Let's begin
Hear the raw, bitter scraping sound
Roll the windows down
And let them out
Let the angels out

Do you hear, hear what I do
I've done it all
All that you've asked me to
I'll keep making you make that sound
Til our hearts are stopped
Do you see, you see in me
Am I not all that you hoped I'd be
Now that no one else is around
Tell me who's on top

Open the door and let me in
Red candy and adrenaline
Save you're tears as the cries all drown
Open those angelic eyes and let them out
Let the angels out

Do you hear, hear what I do
I've done it all
All that you've asked me to
I'll keep making you make that sound
Til our hearts are stopped
Do you see, you see in me
Am I not all that you hoped I'd be
Now that no one else is around
Tell me who's on top

I was invited
I can't help but wonder why
(switch with me)
You're so excited
You only need just a try
(switch with me)
I was invited here so open up your eyes
Let the angels out

Do you hear, hear what I do
I've done it all, all that you've asked me to
I'll keep making you make that sound
Til our hearts are stopped
Do you see, you see in me
Am I not all that you hoped I'd be
Now that no one else is around
Tell me who's on top
