

It's Not Me

Blaque

You said you want him baby
I see you acting shady
Always wanting everything that you see
Playing everybody like a card up your sleeve

I got what you ain't got
Your man, like it or not
The things that you said he could never be
Is now everything he's becoming with me

It's not me staring at your boyfriend
Can't you see he's waiting just to move in
Please believe he won't waste no time
Whisper in my ear "Would you call me tonight, yeah?"
It's not me staring at your boyfriend
Can't you see he's waiting just to move in
Baby girl, he may be yours now
But I never say never when the feeling is right, yeah

You've tossed him out the door
But now you're back for more
Ever since you noticed I was catching his eye
Boy, oh woe is me and pretended to cry

The way we love, yeah
Ooh, you know me lover
Ba-ba-bumping like it's me at the club
Baby we both knew it would never be enough

It's not me staring at your boyfriend
Can't you see he's waiting just to move in
Please believe he won't waste no time
Whisper in my ear "Would you call me tonight, yeah?"
It's not me staring at your boyfriend
Can't you see he's waiting just to move in
Baby girl, he may be yours now
But I never say never when the feeling is right, yeah

She drove him away
Straight into my arms
That's right you drove him away
Straight into my arms
(Get 'em, get 'em, get 'em)
C'mon

It's not me staring at your boyfriend
Can't you see he's waiting just to move in
Please believe he won't waste no time
Whisper in my ear "Will you call me tonight, yeah?"
It's not me staring at your boyfriend
And can't you see he's waiting just to move in Yo baby girl, it may be outta line
But I never say never when the feeling is right, yeah

It's not me staring at your boyfriend
Can't you see he's waiting just to move in
Please believe he won't waste no time

Whisper in my ear "Would you call me tonight, yeah?"
It's not me staring at your boyfriend
Can't you see he's waiting just to move in
Baby girl, he may be yours now
But I never say never when the feeling is right, yeah
It's not me staring at your boyfriend
Can't you see he's waiting just to move in
Please believe he won't waste no time
Whisper in my ear "Would you call me tonight, yeah?"
It's not me staring at your boyfriend
Can't you see he's waiting just to move in
Baby girl, he may be yours now
But I never say never when the feeling is right, yeah
