

Every Storm Ends

Blaze Bayley

Your heart will heal a
And your tears will dry
Every storm ends
When you look back
Everything you see
Will be what you have survived

Some people give up on themselves
Waiting for the end
Slowly they just die
Some people don't admit defeat
Making their own wings
They learn how to fly

There will be storms I have to survive
Inside my head and inside my heart
Times when I feel it's impossible
To find a place I can call home

Hold your future
There in your own hand
Don't let it go
Try to hold on
What is broken now can mend and you can grow strong

Some people just live in the past
Let it drag them down with regrets and pain
Some people learn to let things go
Hoping for the best they get up again

There will be storms I have to survive
Inside my head and inside my heart
Times when I feel it's impossible
To find a place I can call home

Now I just take it one step at a time
I'm facing each day and no matter what comes
I'm facing up to such a difficult truth
I've got to face life on my own

Your heart will heal
And your tears will dry
Every storm ends
