Remember

Blaze Bayley

Brewer:
Remember. Remember me. Remember us.

Was it all by chance, coincidence, accidents or was there something guiding me, guiding us?
Sharing a point in space and time, our light became so strong that we were shining Asteroids and space junk and comets are all things alone, always moving or falling to earth Accepting nothing without evidence or proof except we knew we were shining

I feel broken inside,
when I can't see the light,
when I'm torn apart when my feelings take over again

I remember someone and a time when things were so simple and so strong
We just didn't care
because we were laughing out loud
We were laughing out loud

Protect yourself from a cynical world You told me just ignore all the things that I don't have Learn to be here, right now in this moment with you and soon we would be shining

Never be afraid to let myself laugh and to dance, everything is crazy in this world And in this madness we won't be alone, we will find each other
'cause we are shining

I feel broken inside,
when I can't see the light,
when I'm torn apart when my feelings take over again

I remember someone
and a time when things were so simple and so strong
We just didn't care
because we were laughing out loud
we were laughing out loud

I feel broken inside
when I can't see the light
when I'm torn apart, when my feelings take over again
I remember someone
