

Small Town Hero

Blaze Foley

High school, high school, college too
Church on Sunday, learn the Golden Rule
Cause the devil he might get you before he gets through
He might get you before he gets through

Small town hero, baseball team
Loudmouth nosey, although never says a thing
Tries to get some lovin' with his high school ring
Tries to get it with his high school ring

He's always talking 'bout the things he's gonna do
Goes round breakin' little guys in two
Somebody gonna get him before he gets through
Bound to get him before he gets through

Cheerleaders, cheerleaders, yeah yeah yeah
Rah rah rah, you got nothin' to tell
Always in your seat before you heard the bell
That bell, it don't ring no more

Mommy, mommy, what went wrong?
Too late for questions, now you're on your own
Mommy's broke down, and your daddy's gone
They just couldn't make it work no more

High school, high school, college too
Church on Sunday, learn the Golden Rule
'Cause the devil, he might get you before he gets through
He might get you before he gets through
