

Monster Inside

Blaze Ya Dead Homie

He walks with a grin, he grows from within, he lives off fear and he eats of f sin,
He walks like a troll, his body is cold, if he had a heart it'd be black as coal.
Death's at his hands, plottin' gang plans, its all predetermined by the grai ns of sand
And the hourglass break drop as the hours pass, and he relives the excitemen t til the last glass.
His rage is displayed with a gauge to your stomach, it lives in a chef as he
chops at the veins,
Press human patties' at blood soak bay, its all that remains at the end of h is day, Hes a nightmare in the night air with a cold stare you could be the one caug ht in his sick glare
Now ya chosen, and ya frozen, oh its mine. it'll break itself free if only i n due time.

(Monster)

Pain.

Torture.

Kill.

Destroy.

Thats all I wanna do thats all that brings me joy.

I am the monster within taking control, and once I am out I am never letting go.

There's a monster!

(dat lives inside me!)

There's a monster!

(Somewhere inside me!)

There's a monster!

(it lives inside me!)

There's a monster!

(always inside me!)

Gotta stay locked away, if he came out to play, feel his lust to kill and th en everybody pay.

His thirst is much worse and his craving its a curse, he likes scrambled egg s til the eyes burst,

And pull off fingernails wit a set of vicegrips, he doused you all in gasoli ne after he takes a sip.

Tortures you for sacrifice to feed his appetite, his ritualist god, his ritu al is hot.

The fear is immense, as insists by the screams, and the sound that goes roun d is the thing in the streets.

Right before the kill hes crackin jokes like a jester, got you layed out on the table like you is death stained

Don't kill quick, as he tends to enjoy it. when hes in control the memory is a lil sorted

Pain is all that remains like a chain oh god, I feel em again hes in my brai n!
