

Watery Grave

Blaze Ya Dead Homie

Muthafuckaz talking shit
I discard
Cement shoes come in twos
Ocean is my new graveyard
Give em a L
Fit em all with the granite
Plan is to make you sink
Off in the Atlantic
Been dishing out the blues
Fore it was an art form
Raining on bitches
Like smokey's quiet storm
So calm no shakin'
Decision making time
You swimming with the fishes
Never see another shoreline
It's in the bloodlines
Father was a boss
Keep that in mind
Ain't the one you wanna cross
Pistol whipping I inflict
Without a pause
Look at me side eyeing
You getting fucked up hoss
I am the dead body
Zombie king
Fuck with dead things
Don't get yourself added to my list
End up in the abyss
With some cement shoes
I fashioned just for you
Long way to the bottom
With a beautiful view

Straight 2 the bottom deep in hell where you belong
I'll bet you'll drown by the end of the song
Ain't no way you can be saved
Now Rest In Peace in your watery grave
At the bottom deep in hell where you belong
I'll bet you'll drown by the end of the song
Ain't no way you can be saved
Now Rest In Peace in your watery grave

Mobbing with a bucket of quick Crete out the Lowe's
Nothing discreet back into a parked car
Nearly smash into the light pole
Hit n run left the scene fuck it nobody's dead 'cept
The guy behind the steering wheel
An I ain't saying shit
I gotta tick and an itch
And it just won't quit
To see you sinking to the ocean floor
Never to be seen no more
Call it my new spot a special grave plot
Only company they have is others chosen to rot
Those lucky enough
Not to be shark bait

Won't be lucky enough
To escape a watery grave
Or the decompression
Phase as gases escape
Out of every orifice
And yes I find it glorious
To some it's quite horrific
The sight it's truly sick
Watch as they explode from within is sadistic
But unlike most I'm a ghost
Inside a rotted shell
Addicted to the sight of you
Sinking off to hell

Straight 2 the bottom deep in hell where you belong
Ain't no way you can be saved

Straight 2 the bottom deep in hell where you belong
