

What goes around comes around
And I can't breathe
What holds me up is what holds me down
And I am more unstable than I seem

There's not much there
My heart is bare
Chorus:

But I believe You've given me more

Than I could know
And I know this
You are good
I've fought the fight against myself
And I have lost the fight again
My body's broke from falling down
This time I'll win
Just give me one more chance
My heart is bare

My eyes are weak I can only see
But I know that You're there

A glimmer of Your gold
But it's enough to know
You are good
And through it all You've given me

Oh how I know
A peace that overflows
That You are good
So good to me

You're good
