

Strange Behavior

Bleachers

Looking at all this strange behavior
Well, I think I understand why this lonely ghost
Is everything I wanted to know
So I followed it to any hole

It says, "Look at this. This is just a shadow
What you thought was faith, that was hollow
Look at you. You've been chasing shadows
That's why you wake up in two."

Holding on to all this strange behavior
Can't believe what I thought would save me
A pretty girl
If I follow her around the world
When I catch her, she'll say to me

"Look at this. This is just a shadow
What you thought was faith, that was hollow
Look at you. You've been chasing shadows
That's why you wake up in two."
