

Tiny Moves

Bleachers

The tiniest moves you make
The whole damn world shakes
Call it a bloodlust crisis of faith
Been changing enough for us both, babe

Oh, oh, oh
Watchin' it all come down
Watch it go 'round and 'round

The tiniest moves you make
Watchin' my whole world shake
Look who's on the edge again
On the edge again
(Woo)

Call it American football chic
Breaking your neck for no reason
The little brush right down the avenue
A tiny twist of faith will come and shake you
You can believe

Oh, oh, oh
Watchin' it all come down
Watch it go 'round and 'round

The tiniest moves you make
Watchin' my whole world shake
Look who's on the edge again
On the edge again
(Woo)

On your own again
On your own again
What? Yeah? What?
Say, oh

The tiniest moves you make
Watchin' the whole world shake
Watchin' my whole world change
The tiniest twist of fate
Watchin' my whole world shake
Watchin' my whole world change
Oh, oh, oh
The tiniest moves you make
Tiniest moves you make
Watchin' the whole world shake
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)
The tiniest twist of fate

The tiniest moves you make
The tiniest moves you make
The tiniest twist of fate
Watchin' my whole world change
