

A Hope in Hell

Bleed from Within

When sanctuary is all you have left
It's time to walk the tightrope without the net
Lost in a place where every dream goes to die
I aim to leave this lie behind

Evolve, far beyond the age old script
Don't settle, we were meant for more than this
Face the tragedy of death and defeat, it's blistering
I've held on for too long, release and go beyond

We fell before
And we will fall again
The first forgiven
The second amends
Did we break the spell?
Maybe time will tell?
Just hear me out
There's not a hope in hell

Yeah, fight back, bring on the change you made
It's not wrong and it puts you in control
In front of all who've done you wrong
Release and go beyond

Can't comprehend such fear of failure
Caught in a web of eternal inertia
Spin your own tale
Twist the narrative of your existence
The final sign
Leave this behind

We fell before
And we will fall again
The first forgiven
The second amends
Did we break the spell?
Maybe time will tell?
Just hear me out
There's not a hope in hell
Not a hope in hell

Listen to me
An unsuspecting victim of life and all it's carnage
To hell and back
To the trial I march

No end in sight
Sentenced to life

We fell before
And we will fall again
The first forgiven
The second amends
Did we break the spell?
Maybe time will tell?
Just hear me out

In front of all who done you wrong
No longer sentenced to life
