Bleed from Within

(You can't be forced to live a lie)
(If it lives inside you, it will come alive)

Let go of the fear you hold inside
Your time is now

When the smoke clears will the regret take hold?
You could have been so much more
A taste of the poison you swallow left you broken, hopeless and hollo w

Fight the fear of the unknown. Rip it up and start again
Don't let your dreams descend by the burden of how they end

Conflicted, Shattered by the lack of self respect
Your time is now

You can't be forced to live a lie
If it lives inside you, it will come alive
You can't be forced to live a lie
A life you will live to despise

I won't look back in the face of defeat
Raise your fists and rise up to your feet
Do you have something to prove?
What have we really got to lose?

Fight the fear of the unknown
Rip it up and start again

Don't let your dreams descend
By the burden of how they end

You can't be forced to live a lie
If it lives inside you it will come alive
You can't be forced to live a lie
A life you will live to despise

(I won't look back in the face of defeat. Raise your fists and rise u p to your feet)

There will be no light to guide the way
Take control of what you make your own
Don't live a lie

Suffering is bound to overcome when we fall
You have to learn from it
You have to take control
Don't live a lie
