

Drag you to the Ground

Bleed from Within

None of this is true, they will outlive me and you
Down again and we're left for dead
But this is not the end
Pull the trigger
We'll live on forever
Now the blind will lead the blind
Into destruction

Carving hate in our minds to divide us
We are bound no more

Take back what they've taken from us
Will we fall in the fire or rise from the dust
Reign down for the ones that we've lost
We'll drag you to the ground with us

Strip back the skin down to the bone
The face of hate shall now be known
Witness the reign of destruction
They're carving hate in our minds to divide us
Yet rebellion rises, submit to this
United as one, we are bound no more

Take back what they've taken from us
Will we fall in the fire or rise from the dust
Reign down for the ones that we've lost
We'll drag you to the ground with us

The time has come when words are not enough
Witness the reign of destruction

The time has come when words are not enough
Walking the road of bitter deceit
Now live with the consequence
Suddenly you fear
There's nowhere to run
There's nowhere to hide

Take back what they've taken from us
Will we fall in the fire or rise from the dust
Reign down for the ones that we've lost
We'll drag you to the ground with us

We'll drag you down with us
