

God Complex

Bleed from Within

The silent executioner
Bodies shatter like glass
I am Goliath and I'll mark my path
Cause I want it, I crave it
I need you to believe it
You're heading for catastrophe, yeah

A fractured sense of clarity
Behind your mask of sincerity
You want it
You crave it
But we will never give in to you

Now this is the time
Falling in line
Unify
No god of mine decides
This anthem for the corrupt
Set to self-destruct

We're not gonna break our backs in the name of the heretic
In this alliance, one will tread alone
Oblivious, but now we know
We're only made of flesh and bone
The broken always follow

Demanding to be fucking worshipped
In the kingdom of the blind
Now you want it
You need it
But without me, who pledges to you?
I want to hear it now

This is the time
Falling in line
Unify
No god of mine decides
This anthem for the corrupt
Set to self-destruct

Self-obsessed
In distress
But you don't know it yet
Don't look to me for salvation

Blinded by incompetence
Armed to the teeth with confidence
In the wake of your god complex

A pathetic excuse of a man
Clawing at the roots of fame and fortune
Take your place with the snakes

This is the time
Falling in line
Unify

This anthem for the corrupt
Set to self-destruct

This anthem for the corrupt
Set to self-destruct

In the wake of your god complex
