Bleed from Within

We can't be the ones to watch this world fall before us
Open your fucking eyes
Can't you see where its all going wrong?
I shall take your fears, your pain
And burn it to the ground
One man can speak, his word will be worshiped
Admiration
His voice will bring forth the silence
This world will fall
This is your decision
You are the infection
You are nothing more than a man
Fuck you power and you choices
This frail picture stands before me
(Is) this your divine being
You crowned yourself a king
There will be a fucking Armageddon
You can't keep this from me
No longer will you keep me from the world
