

The End of All We Know

Bleed from Within

I'm hearing voices, but I'm not seeing progress
Devastate, can't relate, stay the f*ck away from me
We run at nothing till we can't turn back
So we dig our way to the other side

I finally feel like I can breathe again
Take a moment to absorb the consequence of taking the fall
I shed my skin once and for all

The light is shifting out of sight
But not out of mind

What the light has failed to capture
Is this the end of all we know?
I will not deny the warning signs
This time I will not stand alone

Fall into insanity again and again
Lingering obsessions dwell in the shadows below
In this moment there is pain in our eyes

All that we have left, we will die for

I finally feel like I can breathe again
Take a moment to absorb the consequence of taking the fall

What the light has failed to capture
Is this the end of all we know?
I will not deny the warning signs
This time I will not stand alone

I've spent years on the ground
Looking up at the world for mercy
I shed my skin

Let the fires rise
From the ashes we will see the light
Where the embers lie
Our liberty no longer denied

What the light has failed to capture
Is this the end of all we know?
I will not deny the warning signs
This time I will not stand alone
