

The Will To Resist

Bleed from Within

Renegades

Those that turn on the masquerade
A show for the ages will manifest a soul worth saving
The will to test the strength of self
Liberate, separate from the source
This dictates the course of thought
Yet we struggle to escape
Thoughts like bullets and broken wit

I am the radiance

The radiance and the abyss
The world can't ask for more
It's all that I've got, the will to resist

The remedy

A shop-bought shield sold to medicate
And line my grave, just f*cking bury me
I try once more the will to test the strength of self
Legacy in the way of progress
Lost in all the self-made bullshit
We struggle to escape

The world found hope and it's six feet deep

A nest in the mind of mine and yours

Spawns a thought, we cannot cure
Through the day, the soul endures
The strength to heal this is mine and yours

I am the radiance

The radiance and the abyss
The world can't ask for more
It's all that I've got, the will to resist

Radiance and the abyss

The radiance and the a -
The radiance and the abyss

Thoughts crippling me

I see the end, I repent, I repent
I've fallen again
Over the edge, is it fear of the end
Or a sign of progress?
In spite of all the self-made bullshit
The world found hope
