

Quiet Here

Bleed The Sky

Take advantage of
Take your time
Slowly die
Withering away

Violent swell
Quiet hell
Take this from you
Leave this all behind

June 18th, '06 Killing me
Your words of comfort no reprieve

Back out of the light caught in the river flow
Death is not the way you must go

Open up his beating chest
Shadows crawl into his flesh
Take my life
Trade it for his
Give back his time

Watch me as I choke
The words I never spoke

Watch me as I choke

This is bigger than I feared
Sad to say but God is quiet here

It's so comforting
I can hear you crying over me

Searing blade across my throat
Dying lungs are filled with smoke

Losing ground
Fear what I have become

Stay the course
Heading straight for the sun

Open up my beating chest
Shadows crawl into my flesh
Spare my life
Back to me
Give back my time

Watch me as I choke
The words I never spoke

Watch me as I choke

Giving into my worst fear
I never thought God was quiet here

Quiet here

Here
