Darkness, a Feeling I Know

Bleeding Through

This life. It will destroy your heart.
Life. Will only rip us apart.
Let me reach into my flesh to show you my pain.
The hurt and the ugliness remains the same.
Life can you make you meaningless and cold.
Life. Darkness a feeling I know.
I tried to be perfect the outcome is death.
The love and the beauty. Take my last breath.
I killed myself one thousand times seeking light.
Just to remember your face when I die.
