Life

Bleeding Through

I was nothing.
Part of the scum of the earth.
Alone so many times with no sense of worth.
I'm still fighting to prove myself.
Running opinion.
Insecurities unearthed.

Help me now.
I wont take another step.
Who saves me now.
Exhale my final breath.
Exhale my final breath.

I was worthless.
Someone who lies to himself.
Staring at suicide praying for help.
Who really cares?
I've gone as far as I can go.
This world has bled me dry.
My bodies turning cold...

Help me now.
I wont take another step.
Who saves me now.
Exhale my final breath.
Exhale my final breath.

I live to see another day.
The look upon your face.
To see you walk away.
I give the darkest side of me,
The scared side of me to see another day.

(I live to see another day.
The look upon your face.
To see you walk away.
I give the darkest side of me,
The scared side of me to see another day.)

Go! I was nothing.
Part of the scum of the earth.
Alone so many times with no sense of worth.
I'm still fighting to prove myself.
Running opinion.
Insecurities unearthed.

Help me now.
I wont take another step.
Who saves me now.
Exhale my final breath.
Exhale my final breath.

I live to see another day.
The look upon your face.
To see you walk away.
I give the darkest side of me,
the scared side of me to see another day.

(I live to see another day.
The look upon your face.
To see you walk away.
I give the darkest side of me,
The scared side of me to see another day.)

Life.
Life.
Your life...
