

No One from Nowhere

Bleeding Through

I am the liar will you listen to me?
I am the addict will you fill my need?
I am oblivion now follow me, follow me.

My mind is destruction.
Leaving me now chance to ever be free.
Excuse for depression.
A death on my reality.

I am love, I am hate, I am the end of my life.
I degrade, destroy, I am what I despise.

No one from nowhere.
No one ever gave a shit.
My mind the only true enemy.
No one from nothing.
These moments only contradict
Now times the revenge that I seek.

My soul is degraded.
I want to feel but my thoughts wont let me believe.
Face down in the pavement
I am the house of stone and I am ready to bleed.

No one from nowhere.
No one ever gave a shit.
My mind the only true enemy.
No one from nothing.
These moments only contradict
now times the revenge that I seek.

I am the liar will you listen to me?
I am the addict will you fill my need?
I am oblivion now follow me, follow me.
