Bleeding Through

Indeed I still believe this world will never defeat me.
Through hell and fire and you still cant burn me.
I wont let you into my heart again and I swear this oath to bury you all.

That life is finally erased.
Dead and gone.
Permanent replaced.

This is the last I'll say to you.
Its time to see life through my eyes.
No longer giving in while you pull me under.
Nothing more for me and you.
Stay dead to my life and choke on my remains.

I hope this feeling make you sick of yourself.
So many times you've played the victim.
I'll meet you in hell.

You wont stop me.
Stomp out your ashes and I'll spit on your grave.

That life is finally erased.
Dead and gone.
Permanent replaced.

This is the last I'll say to you.
Its time to see life through my eyes.
No longer giving in while you pull me under.
Nothing more for me and you.
Stay dead to my life and choke on my remains.

I gave you too much.
My heart, my soul, my mind.
All of my blood.
I gave you too much.
My heart, my soul, my mind.
All of my blood.

This is the last I'll say to you.
Its time to see life through my eyes.
No longer giving in while you pull me under.
Nothing more for me and you.
Stay dead to my life and choke on my remains.

This is the last I'll say to you.
(This is the last I'll say to you.)
This is the last I'll say to you.
This is the last I'll say to you.
(This is the last I'll say to you.)
This is the last I'll say and choke on my remains.
