

Revolving Hype Machines

Bleeding Through

Is this really what has come to this
Hype machine and hypocrites
Now you will follow them back

Don't care what statute you proclaim
It stands for nothing
No respect for any ideals or morality

What you accomplished doesn't mean shit
You're just a hypocrite
You'll never have a voice of your own
You're just another puppet

So how much more can you take?
Pulling the strings inside your fate
I know that weight is crushing
Live on your knees, the world is dead

What you accomplished doesn't mean shit
You're just a hypocrite
You're just another puppet
