

Grace

Blessing Offer

She's the one I finally call on
When all my wrongs have finally caught up
And there I am
Cornered with my back to the wall
And she's the one I finally come to
When all my friends and family run to
A safer place, far from me
'Cause I've hurt them all

Oh, but how much Grace can take
I don't even know
Look at these mistakes
But where else can I go?
How much can Grace can take
I'm not even sure
All I have is faith
While I'm knocking on her door, oh
Grace, just one more chance
Grace, just one more chance
I know I don't deserve you
Look how much I've hurt you
But Grace, just one more chance

Oh

She's the one that lights my darkness
She knows how broken my heart is
And she's the one, that takes me from how lost I was
And she's the one I take for granted
Selfish how I take advantage
And she's the one, the patient one, the amazing one

Oh, but how much Grace can take
I don't even know
Man, look at these mistakes
But where else can I go?
How much Grace can take
I'm not even sure
All I have is faith
While I'm knocking on her door

I'm screaming, "Grace, just one more chance"
Grace, just one more chance
I know I don't deserve you
Oh, look how much I've hurt you
But, Grace, just one more chance
Oh
She's the one, who takes me from how lost I was She's the one, the patient one, the amazing one

But how much Grace can take
I don't even know
Man, look at my mistakes
But where else can I go?
How much Grace can take
I'm not even sure
Man, all I have is faith

While I'm knocking on her door

I'm praying, Grace, just one more chance
Screaming, "Grace, just one more chance"
Crying, "Grace, just one more chance"
Praying, Grace, just one more chance
Grace, just one more chance
Grace, just one more chance
I know I don't deserve you
Look how much I've hurt you
Grace, just one more chance
Oh