

The Roses

Blessing Offer

I didn't know I was low
I didn't know I was lonely
I didn't know that I needed You
How did You know where I was?
How did You? I didn't even call
Was scared of the dark, now I dream of You

Oh
You give me something different
Oh
Since the beginning

I can see the roses
Coming through the concrete
I been feeling golden
Knowing that You got me
Found out I was broken
Found out You're the remedy
Put me back together better than I could ever be
Now I can see the roses
Now I can see the roses

Tell me You're not letting go
Tell me You're not leaving me alone
I like me better when You stay close
I'm used to running away
I'm used to nobody doing the things they say
Don't tell me yes if you just don't know

Oh
You give me something different
Oh
Since the beginning

I can see the roses
Coming through the concrete
I been feeling golden
Knowing that You got me
Found out I was broken
Found out You're the remedy
Put me back together better than I could ever be
Now I can see the roses
Now I can see the roses
Now I can see the roses

Reaching out for the sunlight
Now I can see the roses
Everything gonna be alright
Now I can see the roses

Reaching out for the sunlight
Now I can see the roses
Everything gonna be alright

I can see the roses
Coming through the concrete
I been feeling golden

Knowing that You got me
Found out I was broken
Find out You're the remedy
Put me back together better than I could ever be
Now I can see the roses

Now I can see the roses
Now I can see the roses
Now I can see the roses
I can see the roses