

There She Is

Blessing Offor

Just when the good times end
And all of my good time friends
Suddenly have somewhere to be
Just when I tell myself
I don't need no one else
Just as I'm falling to my knees

There she is, there she's been
All along, waiting on me
There she is, there she's been
All along, waiting on me
There she is

Just when the nightmares come
There's nowhere I can run
No one to sing me a lullaby
Just when I'm running low
On love and on faith and hope
Just when I start to close my eyes

There she is, there she's been
All along, waiting on me
There she is, there she's been
All along, waiting on me
There she is

I know I don't deserve her after all I've done to hurt her
But she's the only one I know will never leave
Yes, I need her, Lord, help me keep her
'Cause when I feel I don't belong, and I'm alone

There she is, there she's been
All along, waiting on me
There she is, there she's been
All along, waiting on me
There she is