

Déjà Vu

Blessthefall

You asked if I'd been sleeping
Just hear me out I can't remember
Swallowed by fear these thoughts betray me
It's had it's hold on me for far too long now
Don't tear me down

If it's a dream, where do I go?
If it's a dream, I've lost all concept.

It's too late it's too late, they won't let me go.
They're sinking around and around you.
As your head starts to weaken your body's the reason. (Reason)
So how can you say that's enough?
As your head starts to weaken your body's the reason. (Reason)
This is not enough

I fell asleep inside your arms. I fell asleep inside
How will I find myself? (Find myself!)
Will this be over soon?
Find yourself before it comes to an end! (Find yourself!)

Don't be afraid it's almost over now.
Don't fade away we're not the same.

It's too late it's too late, they won't let me go.
They're sinking around and around you.
As your head starts to weaken your body's the reason. (Reason)
So how can you say that's enough?
As your head starts to weaken your body's the reason. (Reason)
This is not enough

I fell asleep inside your arms.
I fell asleep inside your arms.

I feel it sinking in I feel it slipping away
I feel it sinking in I feel it slipping away (Away)
I feel it sinking in I feel it slipping away (Away)
I feel it sinking in I feel it slipping away (Away)
I feel it sinking in I feel it slipping away (Away)

I feel it sinking in I feel it slipping away
So how can you save them tonight?
I feel it sinking in I feel it slipping away
This is not enough!
