

DRAG ME UNDER

Blessthefall

I hear the claws at my door
But I won't let you in
I've heard this before (Before)
Time and time again
I'm caught between
A lit match and gasoline
She's an open flame
But I like the pain so let it burn

If this is hell then let us burn
There's no turning back
If this is hell then we might as well burn
Just burn

So will you drag me under?
Pull me deep and breathe for me, baby
Drag me under
I'm yours to keep, so sink your teeth into me
Suffer and smile as you drag me under

Cold hearts will always be
Reckless abandoned
Take what you want from me
Tear me apart

Piece by piece, piece by piece

Piece by piece

Take what you want from me
Tear me apart
Take what you want from me

So will you drag me under?
Pull me deep and breathe for me, baby
Drag me under
I'm yours to keep, so sink your teeth into me
And I know what's on the line (I know what's on the line)
The pleasures worth the price
So take me down
Suffer and smile as you drag me under

I'm caught between
A lit match and gasoline
She's an open flame
But I like the pain so let us burn

If this is hell then let us burn
There's no turning back
If this is hell then we might as well burn
Let it fucking burn

Drag me under
Pull me deep and breathe for me, baby
Drag me under
And I know what's on the line (I know what's on the line)

The pleasures worth the price
So take me down
Pull me deep and breathe for me, baby
