

Sleepless In Phoenix

Blessthefall

Just remember, to forget me
I hate this honestly
Please take this the wrong way
Don't need you to need me
I need you to disappear

'Cause I carry ghosts of the things you've said
But you won't come home even if you're dead

Night after night, sleepless in Phoenix
Tell me a lie, make me believe it
You got me right where you haunt me
You got me right where you haunt me

Your pieces are right here
But nothing really fits
I want you to want me
I want you to want me
Then watch me disappear

'Cause I carry ghosts of the things you've said
I lay my bones to rest

Night after night, sleepless in Phoenix
Tell me a lie, make me believe it
You got me right where you haunt me
You got me right where you haunt me
Night after night, need you to know this
Tears me apart, I hope that you're hopeless too

And I know we can kiss the past goodbye
And I know we can kiss the past goodbye
And I know we can kiss the past goodbye
Kiss the past goodbye

Night after night, sleepless in Phoenix
Tell me a lie, make me believe it
You got me right where you haunt me
You got me right where you haunt me
Night after night, need you to know this
Tears me apart, I hope that you're hopeless too
You got me right where you haunt me
You got me right where you haunt me

And I know we can kiss the past goodbye
And I know we can kiss the past goodbye
And I know we can kiss the past goodbye
