

Alone Against All

Blind Channel

Gimme, gimme, gimme hope!

Young blood, bad guys, and broken hearts
Angels, demons, and battle scars
Weed, balaclavas and rubber gloves
We are born to a world that's falling apart
We are born to a world that's falling apart

Gimme, gimme, gimme hope
We're knocking on heaven's door
But I'm afraid there's no more hope
Know what you're fighting for
'Cuz tonight you're fighting alone against all!
You're fighting alone against all!
Gimme, gimme, gimme hope!

The youth is wasted on the young
We live and love like loaded guns
Forgive me for what I have done
But I am what I have only come
(I am what I have only come)
(I am what I am!)

You hope we're knocking on heaven's door
But I'm afraid there's no one home
Know what you're fighting for, 'cuz tonight you're
You're fighting alone against all!
(Fighting alone against all)
You're fighting alone against all!

Nobody knows how to live or die
This world is cold, but I'm burning deep inside
Know what you're fighting for
'Cause tonight you're fighting alone against

Young blood, bad guys, and broken hearts
Angels, demons, and battle scars
Weed, balaclavas and rubber gloves
We are born to a world that's falling apart!
We are born to a world that's falling apart!

Fighting a war against all!
Fighting alone against all!

Nobody knows how to live or die
This world is gone but we're still alive
Know what you're fighting for
'Cause tonight you're fighting alone against all
