

Calling Out

Blind Channel

Seems like somebody's been scratching the walls
Maybe they wanna get in, maybe they wanna get out
I don't know but there is no doubt
That somebody's been calling out the ghosts
Cause I know this thrill when it comes for me
Yeah, I know this voice when it's calling out for me

Our stories end, but our instincts never change
And now the rage is all that remains
It overflows the pain
Now the sun's gone down
Now the air is heavy
This is where the shadows come out
But I ain't scared, I'm ready

If you're in this room
Show me a sign

I'm calling out
I'm calling out
'Cause tonight I'm done being afraid
I'm calling out for you
It's all that I can do
Woah ooh

Under these scars that neither one of us can forget
I try to pull back the trigger
Let's play like we're dead
Nothing feels more alive than a gun in the head
And nothing feels more dead than lying in this bed

You drag me through the floor and I keep begging for more
You try to win a battle, I try to start a war
You shouldn't tickle a sleepy lion
Yeah I thought you were a monster
But now I see that you're just a coward

Show yourself
Show yourself

I'm calling out
I'm calling out
'Cause tonight I'm done being afraid
I'm calling out for you
It's all that I can do
Woah ooh

If you're in this room
Show me a sign
Show me
I'm calling out
I'm calling out
(I'm calling, I'm calling, I'm calling out)

I'm calling out
I'm calling out
'Cause tonight I'm done being afraid

I'm calling out for you
It's all that I can do
Woah ooh

I'm calling out (I'm calling, I'm calling, I'm calling out)
I'm calling out (I'm calling, I'm calling out)
'Cause tonight I'm done being afraid
I'm calling out for you
It's all that I can do (I'm calling, I'm calling out)
Woah ooh
