

DIE ANOTHER DAY

Blind Channel

All my life
What a waste of time
I wonder why am I still alive

Running out of rage
Running out of reasons
Running out of hate
Running out of demons
Running out of pain and
I need a meaning to make me whole again

This world is gonna fuck you up
It's gonna get dark and it seems too tough
You don't don't wanna carry on
I know all about giving up
'Cause lately I've been looking hard
Where is my love?
Where is my luck?
Where is my faith?
My reason to die another day

All my scars
Are a work of art
Falling apart is where my story starts

Holding on to errors
I find in myself
Holding on to horrors
I try to forget
I'm waiting for the end and
I need a meaning to make me whole again

This world is gonna fuck you up
It's gonna get dark and it seems too tough
You don't don't wanna carry on
I know all about giving up
'Cause lately I've been looking hard
Where is my love?
Where is my luck?
Where is my faith?
My reason to die another day
My reason to die another day

If you're done with believing in life
Listen up
I know what you're thinking about in the dark
Maybe life would be easier without a heart
I'mma tear it out

This world is gonna fuck you up
It's gonna get dark and it seems too tough
You don't don't wanna carry on
I know all about giving up
'Cause lately I've been looking hard
Where is my love?
Where is my luck?
Where is my faith?

My reason to die another day
My reason to die another day
